

Austin Publishing Group is pleased to announce the launch of its new open access eBook “Recent Advances in Cardiac Rehabilitation and Prevention” edited by Dr. Francesco Giallauria and Dr. Carlo Vigorito.

At the onset, we cordially invite researchers and authors to submit Book Chapters for review and possible publication in this eBook.

All submissions will undergo a double blind peer review by eminent experts in the field. We advise you to please refer the author guidelines carefully prior to submission.

Deadline for submission would be on or before February 02, 2015 and we are scheduling to publish the eBook in April 2015.

A publication fee of USD 150 per chapter would be charged upon acceptance to cover the production and maintenance costs. This will be an Open Access eBook, facilitating readers from all parts of the globe to access it for free forever.

A certificate for publication upon peer review is provided to all contributing authors.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for any further queries. We will be happy to assist you.
